THE ELECTORAL ROLLS RULES, 1976.

1. Short title.—These rules may be called the Electoral Rolls Rules, 1976.

2. Definitions.—In these rules, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

(1) "Form" means a form annexed to these rules and include translations thereof into any language;

(2) "Ordinance" means the Electoral Rolls Ordinance, 1976 (Ord. No. XIV of 1976);

(3) "publish", with its grammatical variations, means exhibition at a place accessible to the public;

(4) "Revising Authority" means a person appointed by the Commission under rule 9 to hear claims and objections relating to electoral roll for one or more constituencies; and

(5) "section" means a section of the Ordinance.

3. Form, language and arrangement of electoral roll.—(1) The electoral roll for each constituency shall be in Form I.

(2) The electoral roll shall be prepared in Bengali.

(3) Each statement shall contain a certificate from the enumerator that the statement under sub-rule (1) has been obtained after a personal visit to the house and also a certificate by the supervisor to the effect that the entries therein have been verified or corrected after a house to house visit.

5. Statement of certain persons.—(1) Every person who is in Government service or holds a public office and desires to be registered in the electoral roll for the constituency in which he actually resides shall, before such date as may be fixed by the Commission, make an application in Form III to the Registration Officer of the constituency in which he resides.

(2) If the Registration Officer is satisfied that the person making an application under sub-rule (1) is entitled to do so, he shall enrol his name in accordance with such application.

6. Preliminary publication.—(1) As soon as may be after the draft electoral roll for a constituency is ready, the Registration Officer shall publish it in Form I together with a notice inviting claims and objections at his office and at such other place or places as the Commission may direct.

(2) The draft electoral roll mentioned in sub-rule (1) for each constituency shall be prepared on the basis of statements obtained under rule 4 and no such roll shall be published until the entries therein have been verified to the extent of at least ten per cent by a house to house visit by a person other than the persons obtaining and verifying the statements.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in rule 4, where, in the opinion of the Commission, it is not possible to follow the procedure laid down in that rule for the preparation of the electoral roll for any constituency, the Commission may direct that the electoral roll for such constituency shall be prepared in such manner as it thinks is best suited for the purpose.

(5) When an objection is made to the inclusion in the electoral roll of any person whose name appears therein, such objection shall contain in respect of such person all the particulars required to be filled in the roll.

(6) If any particular in any entry in the electoral roll is not correct, the person to whom the entry relates may apply to the appropriate Revising Authority for the correction thereof in Form VI.

15. Service of notice.—Every notice to be served on any person under sub-rule (6) of rule 10 or rule 14 may be served either personally or by post.

16. Enquiry into claims and objections.—(1) On the day fixed for the purpose, the Revising Authority shall hold a summary enquiry into each claim or objection in respect of which it has issued notice under rule 14 and shall record its decision thereon.

(2) While hearing a claim or objection the Revising Authority may, besides the claimant or the person objecting to any entry, hear such other person as desires to be heard in connection with the claim or objection.

(3) The claimant or the person objecting to any entry or any person who is heard under sub-rule (2) shall not be entitled to any adjournment:

Provided that the Revising Authority may, if it so desires, adjourn the case to any other date.

(6) The Revising Authority shall bring to the notice of the Registration Officer for correction of any clerical, printing or other error which it discovers in the electoral roll of a constituency.

17. Correction of the roll.—(1) The Registration Officer shall correct the electoral roll for the constituency in accordance with the decisions of the Revising Authority under rule 16.

18. Final publication.—The Registration Officer shall, after making additions, deletions, modifications or corrections under sub-section (3) of section 7, publish in Form 1 the final electoral roll for the constituency at his office and at such other place or places as the Commission may direct.

19. Preparation of electoral rolls afresh.—(1) For the purposes of preparation of the electoral roll for a constituency afresh under sub-section (7) of section 7, the procedure laid down for the preparation of electoral rolls shall, as far as may be, be followed.

(2) An electoral roll as prepared afresh under sub-rule (1) shall, upon its final publication, be deemed to be the electoral roll for the constituency concerned.

20. Amendment and correction of the electoral roll.—(1) Any person whose name is not included in an electoral roll for a constituency prepared under the Ordinance and who claims that he was entitled to be enrolled or who has since its preparation or its last revision becomes qualified to be enrolled on such roll may apply to the appropriate Registration Officer for the inclusion of his name therein, and if the Registration Officer is satisfied after giving such notice and making such enquiry as he may consider necessary that the applicant was entitled to have his name so enrolled, he shall amend the roll by making necessary entries therein relating to the applicant.

(2) Any person may apply to the Registration Officer for the correction of an entry in an electoral roll for the time being in force, and

(a) if the entry relates to the applicant and the Registration Officer is satisfied after giving such notice and making such enquiry as he may consider necessary that the entry relates to the applicant and is erroneous or defective in any particular, he shall amend the electoral roll accordingly; and

(b) if the entry does not relate to the applicant and the Registration Officer is satisfied after giving notice to the person to whom the entry relates and after making such enquiry as he may consider necessary that the entry is erroneous or defective or should be deleted, he shall amend the electoral roll accordingly.

(3) Where, at any time, any clerical, printing or other error in any entry in any electoral roll for the time being in force comes to the notice of the Registration Officer, he may, of his own motion and after giving notice to the person to whom the entry relates, correct such error.

(4) If at any time it appears to the Registration Officer that the name of any person who has died or is or has become disqualified for enrolment or who ceases or cannot claim himself to be a citizen under the provision of any law relating to the citizenship of Bangladesh has been included in an electoral roll and if he is satisfied after giving notice to the person concerned and after making such enquiry as he may consider necessary that the name should be deleted, he shall amend the electoral roll accordingly.

(5) No amendment or correction of any electoral roll shall be made under this rule at any time after the notice of election of the representatives of the people on the basis of adult franchise has been issued and before such representatives have been elected.

(6) When an electoral roll has been amended under this rule by the Registration Officer, corresponding amendment or correction shall be made in the copy of the electoral roll in his custody as well as in the copies of the roll kept at other places under rule 22.

(2) When the revised electoral roll for any constituency is finally published in the manner provided in rule 18, the electoral roll for that constituency shall be deemed to have been revised and shall come into force immediately on such final publication.

(3) Any electoral roll as revised under sub-rule (2) shall, upon its final publication under rule 18, replace the electoral roll which was in force immediately before such publication.

22. Custody and preservation of the electoral rolls.—(1) After the electoral roll for a constituency has been finally published, the following papers shall be kept in the office of the Registration Officer and at such place or places as the Commission may direct for a period of one year unless their retention for a longer period is ordered by the Commission, namely :—
