MINISTRY OF COMMERCE AND FOREIGN TRADE

(Commerce Division)

Dacca, the 24th July 1975.

No. S.R.O. 259-L/75.—In exercise of the powers conferred by rule 17 of the Energency Powers Rules, 1975, the Government is pleased to make the following Order, namely:-

THE ESSENTIAL COMMODITIES PRICE AND DISTRIBUTION CONTROL ORDER, 1975.

- 1. Short title and commencement .- (1) This Order may be called the Essential Commodities Price and Distribution Control Order, 1975.
 - (2) It shall come into force at once.

- 2. Definitions.—In this Order, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—
 - (a) "Controller General of Prices and Supplies" means the Controller General of Prices and Supplies, Government of the People's Republic of Bangladesh and includes any Deputy or Assistant Controller General of Prices and Supplies or any other officer authorized in this behalf by the Government to exercise all or any of the powers of the Controller General of Prices and Supplies under this Order;
 - (b) "Director" means the Director of Trade and Commerce, Government of the People's Republic of Bangladesh and includes any Deputy Director or Assistant Director of Trade and Commerce or any other officer authorized in this behalf by the Government to perform all or any of the functions of the Director under this Order;
 - (c) "dealer" means a person or firm carrying on, in conjunction with any other business or not, the business of selling any scheduled article, whether wholesale or retail;
 - (d) "importer" means a person or firm importing into Bangladesh, whether under an import licence granted by the Government or otherwise, any scheduled article from outside Bangladesh and includes a buying agent, an indentor or manufacturer's agent;
 - (e) "producer" means a person or firm engaged in the manufacture or production of any scheduled article; and
 - (f) "scheduled article" means an article specified in the Schedule to this Order,
 - 3. Maximum selling price.—(1) The importers, producers or dealers shall, in respect of the scheduled articles the price whereof has not been fixed under any other law for the time being in force, submit a chart to the Controller General of Prices and Supplies showing prices of the scheduled articles at all levels—producer/importer/wholesaler and retailer—together with price structure immediately after the coming into force of this Order.
 - (2) The Controller General of Prices and Supplies may, after scrutinizing the price structure submitted by the importer, producer or dealer under clause (1), approve of the existing price or fix the maximum selling price for all levels and publish in the official Gazette the maximum selling price of the scheduled articles so approved or fixed.
 - (3) The Controller General of Prices and Supplies may, for the purpose of eliminating undue profiteering by the importers, producers and dealers and for the purpose of periodical checks on the prices due to changed circumstances, call for the relevant data relating to imports, production, purchase, stocks, sales and price structure from the importers, producers and dealers and refix the prices of scheduled articles.
 - (4) No importer, producer or dealer shall sell any scheduled articles at a price higher than the price which the Controller General of Prices and Supplies may fix or refix after examining documents so furnished by notification in the official Gazette or approve of the prices so fixed by the importers, producers or dealers.

- (5) The Controller General of Prices and Supplies may, by notification in the official Gazette, exempt any importer, producer or dealer in any scheduled article from the provisions of this clause and in respect of such area as he may deem necessary.
- 4. Prohibition to increase price.—(1) No importer, producer or dealer shall increase the selling price of any scheduled article the price whereof has been fixed or approved under clause 3 unless such importer, producer or dealer has, at least one month prior to such increase, communicated to the Controller General of Prices and Supplies his intention to do so together with the reasons for such increase.
- (2) Where in pursuance of the provision of sub-clause (I), an importer, producer or dealer has communicated to the Controller General of Prices and Supplies his intention to increase the price of any scheduled article, the Controller General of Prices and Supplies may, by an order in writing, require such importer, producer or dealer to produce before him within such period as may be specified in such order, any documents in the possession or under the control of such importer, producer or dealer relating to the import, production or supply of such scheduled article and the price thereof.
- (3) On receipt of the documents under sub-clause (2) and after duly scrutinizing them, the Controller General of Prices and Supplies may or may not approve of such increase of price or may fix maximum selling price of the said scheduled articles.
- 5. Marking of prices and exhibiting price list.—(1) The Director may direct in writing any importer, producer or dealer to mark the scheduled articles exposed or intended for sale with the selling price or to exhibit on his premises a price list of such scheduled articles held by him for sale or to publish the selling prices of such scheduled articles possessed by him for sale and may further give direction regarding the manner of sale.
- (2) No dealer shall destroy, efface or alter or cause to be destroyed, effaced or altered any label or mark fixed to scheduled articles indicating the price marked by an importer or producer.
- Refusal to sell.—No importer, producer or dealer shall, unless previously authorised to do so by the Director or without sufficient cause, refuse to sell to any person any scheduled article.

Explanation—The possibility or expectation of obtaining higher price for a scheduled article at a later date shall not be deemed to be a sufficient cause for the purpose of this clause.

- 7. Prohibition to keep scheduled articles without documents.—No importer, producer or dealer shall keep any scheduled article in his possession without any document or receipt for such scheduled article.
- 8. Information to be furnished by the importer.—(I) Every importer shall, within one week from the date of his receiving information of despatch of any consignment containing any scheduled article from any place outside Bangladesh, furnish to the Controller General of Prices and Supplies the following information in respect of the consignment, namely:—

(a) description and quantity of the scheduled articles included in the consign

(b) expected date and place of arrival of the consignment in Bangladesh.

- (2) Every importer shall, within two weeks of the arrival of the consignment, furnish to the Controller General of Prices and Supplies the following information in respect of the consignment, namely:—
 - (a) description and quantity of the scheduled articles in the consignment;
 - (b) landed cost of each item of the scheduled article showing cost, insurance and freight value, customs duty and other charges, if any; and
 - (c) indenting commission included in the invoiced value of the consignment.
- (3) Every importer shall, within two weeks of the arrival of the consignments furnish to the Director the description and quantity of the scheduled articles included in the consignment.
- 9. Information to be furnished by the producer.—Every producer of the scheduled articles shall furnish the following information to the Controller General of Prices and Supplies and the Director so as to reach them by the first week of each calendar month, namely:—
 - (a) description and actual quantity of every scheduled article produced in the preceding calendar month;
 - (b) expected quantity of every scheduled article to be produced during the current calendar month;
 - (c) actual or estimated cost of production of such scheduled article.
- 10. Cash memorandum.—Every importer, producer and dealer when selling any scheduled article for cash shall give the purchaser a cash memorandum containing particulars of the transaction and detailed address of the purchaser.
- 11. Declaration of godowns, store houses or warehouses, etc.— (1) Every importer, producer and dealer holding stock of any scheduled article shall, within two weeks from the date of coming into force of this Order, declare to the Controller General of Prices and Supplies and the Director the place where stock of such scheduled article is kept or stored.
- (2) When any such importer, producer or dealer desires to change the place wherein stocks are kept or stored after making a declaration under sub-clause (1), he shall bring to the notice of the Controller General of Prices and Supplies and the Director his intention to change the place at least seven days before such change is effected.
- 12. Maintenance of record.—The importer, producer or dealer shall maintain records of all imports, productions, sales and purchases in such form, as may be specified by the Director.
- 13. Restrictions on the movement of scheduled articles.—The Government may impose restrictions on the movement of any scheduled article within the country if and when so required.

- 14. Power to search, inspect, etc.-The Director may, with a view to securing compliance with this Order-
 - (a) require any person to give such information in his possession with respect to any business carried on by that person or any other person:
 - (b) inspect or cause to be inspected any book, account or other documents belonging to, or under the control of, any person;
 - (c) enter and search, or authorise any person to enter and search, any premises and seize or take into possession any scheduled article in respect of which he has reason to believe that a contravention of this Order has been, is being or is about to be committed or any records connected therewith.
- 15. Exception in case of Government purchasers.-The provisions of this Order shall not apply to the possession, sale or movement of any scheduled article by a person discharging a contract entered into with the Government where the possession or sale is in pursuance of that contract.
- 16. Forfeiture of goods.-A Court or Tribunal trying any contravention of this Order may, without prejudice to any other sentence which it may pass. direct that the scheduled article, in respect of which it is satisfied that a contravention of this Order has been made, shall be forfeited to the Government.
