255. AB-64 will be made out in the Institute and given to each cadet, pay drawn will be recorded therein as directed in these regulations.

256. The unit copy of sheet roll (BAFK-1155) will be maintained in the Institute. On being commissioned will be sent to AMS, Officers Record.

257. Date of joining the Institute and date of enrolment (which should normally be the same) will be notified in Institute Part-II Order and after enrolment all casualties concerning cadets will be published in Part-II Orders in a manner similar to those of JCOs and OR.

258. On receipt of enrolment form and sheet roll the Comdt AMC Centre and Records (Records Wing) will allot Army Numbers to cadets and publish the allotment in Part II Orders, copies of which will be sent to Comdt Armed Forces Medical Institute. The letter will ensure that these Army Numbers are recorded in AB-64, BAFK-1155 Unit copy.

259. When notification of grant of commission is received in the Institute action will be taken as directed in para 138 of these regulations.

260. IRLAS of Cadets enrolled at the Institute will be maintained by Field Pay Office holding those of AMC. On receipt of notification as in para 259 above, the Field Pay Office will forward Last Pay Certificate to FC (Army) Pay-1, Dhaka. This procedure will be arranged by Officer Incharge Records, Field Pay Office and FC (Army) Pay-1 to ensure that first payments to cadets on being commissioned are made on due dates.

261. Acquittance rolls for cadets will be made out and disposed of in accordance with the instructions in these regulations for JCOs and OR.

262. Only those punishments which are awarded under the BAA by an officer acting under that Act will be recorded in sheet roll.

263. Immediately on notification of commission, cadet service sheet roll/enrolment forms will be sent to AMS, Central Officers Record Office (CORO)".
