MINISTRY OF LOCAL GOVERNMENT, RURAL DEVELOPMENT AND CO-OPERATIVES.

(Rural Development and Co-operatives Division.)

Dacca, the 2nd January 1974.

No. S. R. O. 156-L/75 Coop-1/2R-2/73/7.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 133 of the Constitution of the People's Republic of Bangladesh, the President, after consultation with the Bangladesh Public Service (First) Commission as required by clause (2) of article 140 of that Constitution, is pleased to make the following rules, namely:—

1. Short title.—These rules may be called Accounts Officer (Co-operative Department) Recruitment Rules, 1974.

2. Definition.—In these rules, unless context otherwise requires—

- (a) "appointing authority" means the Government and includes any officer authorised by Government to make appointment to the post;
- (b) "Commission" means the Bangladesh Public Service (First) Commission;
- (c) "Department" means the Co-operative Department;
- (d) "Departmental Promotion Committee" means a committee constituted in the Department to recommend candidates for promotion in cases where consultation with the Commission is not necessary;
- (e) "post" means the post of Accounts Officer of the Co-operative Department;
- (f) "probationer" means a person appointed on probation to the post;
- (g) "recognised University" means a University established by or under any law for the time being in force and includes any other University declared by Government, after consultation with the Commission, to be a recognised University for the purpose of these rules;
- (h) "Schedule" means the Schedule to these rules.

3. Procedure of recruitment.—(1) Subject to the conditions in the Schedule and such instructions relating to reservation for the purposes of clause (3) of article 29 of the Constitution appointment to the post shall ordinarily be made by promotion and, in case no suitable person is available for appointment by promotion, appointment shall be made by direct recruitment.

(2) Subject to the provisions of sub-rule (1), where there are more than one post, 75% of the posts shall be filled by promotion and 25% by direct recruitment.

(3) No person shall be appointed to the post unless he has the requisite qualifications and in the case of direct recruitment, also he is within the age limit, if any, specified in the Schedule for that post.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules, the Government may, with the concurrence of the Commission, relax, in any exceptional case to such extent and subject to such conditions, if any, as it may deem fit, any of the requirements of these rules.

4. Appointment by promotion—(1) Appointment by promotion to the post shall be made by the appointing authority after considering the recommendation of the Departmental Promotions Committee:

Provided that if the post is a Class I post, the recommendation of the Commission shall also be necessary for appointment to the post.

(2) A person shall not be eligible for appointment by promotion to the post if he has not been confirmed in any post on the ground of unsatisfactory service records or of his failure to fulfil any other requirement for confirmation to that post.

5. Appointment by direct recruitment—(1) No appointment to the post by direct recruitment shall be made by the appointing authority except upon the recommendation of the Commission.

(2) No person shall be eligible for appointment to the post if he—

(a) is not a citizen of Bangladesh;

(b) is married to, or has entered into a promise of marriage with, a person who is not a citizen of Bangladesh.

(3) No appointment to the post by direct recruitment shall be made until—

(a) the person selected for appointment is certified by a Medical Board set up for the purpose by the Government to be medically fit for such appointment and that he does not suffer from any such organic defect as is likely to interfere with the discharge of the duties of the post;

(b) the antecedents of the person so selected have been verified through appropriate agencies and found to be such as do not render him unfit for appointment to Government service.

(4) No person shall be recommended for appointment to the post unless—

(a) he has applied in such form, accompanied by such fee and before such date, as was notified by the Commission while inviting applications for the post; and

(b) in the case of a person already in Government service or in the service of a local authority, he has applied through his official superior.

6. Probation—(1) Persons selected for appointment to the post against a substantive vacancy shall be appointed on probation,—

(a) in the case of direct recruitment, for a period of two years from the date of substantive appointment; and

(b) in the case of promotion, for a period of one year from the date of such appointment:

Provided that the appointing authority may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, extend the period of probation by a period or periods so that the extended period does not exceed two years in the aggregate.

(2) After the completion of the period of probation or the extended period thereof, the appointing authority,—

- (a) if it is satisfied that the conduct and work of the probationer during his period of probation has been satisfactory, shall, subject to the provisions of sub-rule (3), confirm him; and
- (b) if it is of opinion that the conduct and work of the probationer during that period was not satisfactory, in the case of direct recruitment, terminate his service and, in the case of promotion, revert him to the post from which he was promoted.

(3) A probationer shall not be—

- (a) confirmed in the post, or
- (b) promoted to the next higher specified post, unless he has passed such departmental examination as the Government may, from time to time, direct—
  - (i) in the case of direct recruitment, within four years from the date of substantive appointment; and
  - (ii) in the case of promotion within three years from the date of such appointment.

By order of the President

A. NAIM

Deputy Secretary.
