NATIONAL BOARD OF REVENUE

(Excise)

NOTIFICATION

Dacca, the 4th July, 1979.

No. S.R.O. 194-L/79/11-Excise.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 37 of the Excises and Salt Act, 1944 (I of 1944), the National Board of Revenue is pleased to make the following further amendments in the Excises and Salt Rules, 1944, namely:—

In the aforesaid Rules,—

(1) for rule 96-TT the following shall be substituted, namely:—

“96-TT. Special procedure in respect of gold and silver and products thereof.—(1) In this rule, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

(a) “management” means the owner, manager or any person, by whatever designation known, responsible for the management or conduct of the business of any company, firm, shop or establishment manufacturing or dealing in gold or silver, or both, including remelted gold or silver and products made wholly or partly of gold or silver, all sorts, including ornaments or jewellery;

(b) “repair” means correcting or mending of minor identifiable breakage without involving any remaking, processing, remodelling or altering the shape, model or quality of the original product of gold or silver including ornaments or jewellery;

- (c) "customer" means a person who purchases products of gold or silver, including ornaments or jewellery, either in readymade condition or gets the same processed, made, remade, remodelled or repaired direct from a manufacturer or a dealer for ultimate use but not for further sale; and
- (d) "assessing officer", in relation to the assessment and collection of the duty leviable on gold or silver and products thereof, means the proper officer not below the rank of Deputy Superintendent.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained elsewhere on these rules, the duty on gold and silver and products thereof shall be paid by such management as sells products of gold or silver, including ornaments or jewellery, either in readymade condition to a customer or takes and complies with orders from a customer for processing, making, remaking, remodelling or repairing the same and the duty shall be paid in the manner laid down in this rule.

(3) Every management which is liable to pay duty under sub-rule (2), shall obtain a licence from the proper officer on payment of an annual licence fee of Taka one hundred on execution of a bond in Form B-2 under rule 48 and with a security deposit of Taka one thousand only.

(4) The management shall maintain in the proper form a daily register of all the gold or silver and products thereof received, purchased, delivered or sold during the day.

(5) The management shall maintain the following bound books containing duplicate memos in proper form which should be serially numbered and issue the original to the customer for every transaction retaining the carbon copy in the book:—

- (a) the Order Book;
- (b) the Cash Memo Book; and
- (c) the Repair Book.

The aforesaid books as well as the register required to be maintained under sub-rule (4) shall be maintained by the management separately for gold and its products, and silver and its products, respectively.

(6) The management shall get every page of the register and the books referred to in sub-rules (4) and (5) authenticated by the proper officer before bringing them into use.

(7) The management shall document all transactions in the proper books specified in sub-rule (5) in the proper form for the following purpose, namely:—

- (a) the Order Book for receipt of orders for products of gold or silver, as the case may be;
- (b) the Cash Memo Book for showing the detail transaction and the cash value of the products of gold or silver, as the case may be, as well as the cash received or to be received from the customer; and
- (c) the Repair Book for showing details of the repair and other relevant facts and figures.

(8) The management shall, within seven days after the close of each month, submit to the proper officer a monthly return in the proper form.

(9) The management shall pay the duty due within seven days after the close of each month and shall send the Treasury Challan as proof of payment along with the monthly return to be submitted to the proper officer under sub-rule (8) so as to reach him on or before the tenth day of the following month.

(10) If the assessing officer is satisfied that the return is correct and complete, he shall make an assessment of the duty payable on the basis of the return, after giving due credit for the duty paid in pursuance of sub-rule (9). If the assessing officer is not so satisfied, he may, after obtaining such further particulars as he may require, making such enquiries and giving the management an opportunity of being heard, determine the duty payable. If a management does not submit the monthly return within the period mentioned in sub-rule (8) the assessing officer may make an assessment to the best of his judgement after giving the management an opportunity of being heard.

(11) Every management shall keep the documents complete and make them readily available for inspection and checking by an excise officer not below the rank of an Inspector.

(12) If any management contravenes any of the provisions of this rule, he shall be liable to a penalty which may extend to Taka two thousand or ten times the amount of duty involved, whichever is higher.

(13) The provisions of rules 9, 52, 52A, 52B, sub-rule (1) of rule 224, 228, 228A and 229 shall not apply to gold and silver and products thereof or to the management.”;

(2) in Appendix I, under the heading FORMS,—

(a) after Excise Series No. 55P in column 1 and the entries relating thereto in columns 2, 3 and 4, the following shall be inserted, namely:—

“55Q Daily Account Register of gold or silver or products thereof 96-TT R.G. 18-A”;
