Section IX

NOTIFICATION

Dacca, the 13th July, 1977.

No. S.R.O. 218-L/77.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 5 of the Land Development Tax Ordinance, 1976 (Ordinance No. XLII of 1976), the Government is pleased to make the following further amendment in the Land Development Tax Rules, 1976, namely:—

In the aforesaid Rules,—

(1) In rule 9A, in clause (b),—

- (i) for the words "procured by fraud" the words "made or procured by fraud or otherwise" shall be substituted; and
- (ii) for the words "excision of the fraudulent" the words and commas "correction or, as the case may be, excision of the relevant" shall be substituted.

(2) after rule 9A amended as aforesaid, the following new rule shall be inserted, namely:—

"(9B) Revision of assessment roll.—(1) On receipt of an application from any person or on receipt of an official report, the Revenue Officer, if satisfied that conversion of any land from agricultural to non-agricultural, or from commercial or industrial to residential land or vice-versa has been made, may, after giving all concerned a hearing and making such other inquiry as he deems necessary, revise an assessment roll either before or after its final publication.

Price : 50 Paisa.

(2) Any person aggrieved by the revision under sub-rule (1) may prefer an appeal in the manner laid down in rule 7 and the provisions of the said rule shall mutatis mutandis apply to such revision case.”.

By order of the President

M. KERAMAT ALI

Secretary.

MINISTRY OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING

NOTIFICATION

Dacca, the 13th July, 1977.

No. S.R.O. 219-L/77.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 133 of the Constitution of the People's Republic of Bangladesh, the President, after consultation with the Bangladesh Public Service (First) Commission as required by clause (2) of article 140 of that Constitution, is pleased to make the following rules, namely:—

1. Short title.—These rules may be called the Research Officer (Ministry of Information and Broadcasting) Recruitment Rules, 1977.

2. Definitions.—In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires—

- (a) “appointing authority” means the Government and includes any officer authorised by Government to make appointment to the post;
- (b) “Commission” means the Bangladesh Public Service (First) Commission;
- (c) “probationer” means a person appointed on probation to the post;
- (d) “post” means the post of Research Officer;
- (e) “recognised University” means a university established by or under any law for the time being in force and includes any other university declared by Government after consultation with the Commission to be a recognised university for the purpose of these rules;
- (f) “requisite qualifications” in relation to the post, means the qualifications specified in the Schedule; and
- (g) “Schedule” means the Schedule appended to these rules.

3. Procedure for recruitment.—(1) Subject to the conditions in the Schedule and such instructions as are issued by the Government from time to time relating to reservation for the purposes of clause (3) of article 29 of the Constitution, appointment to the post shall be made—

- (a) by direct recruitment; or
- (b) by promotion or transfer on deputation.

(2) No person shall be appointed to the post unless he has the requisite qualification and, in the case of direct recruitment, he is within the age limit as laid down in the Schedule.

4. Appointment by direct recruitment.—(1) No appointment to the post shall be made except upon the recommendation of the Commission.

(2) No person shall be eligible for appointment to the post if he—

- (a) is not a citizen of Bangladesh, or a permanent resident of, or domiciled in, Bangladesh;

- (b) is married to, or has entered into a promise of marriage with, a person who is not a citizen of Bangladesh.
- (3) No appointment to the post shall be made until—
- (a) the person selected for appointment is certified by a Medical Board set up for the purpose by the Government to be medically fit for such appointment and that he does not suffer from any such organic defect as is likely to interfere with the discharge of the duties of the post;
- (b) the antecedents of the person so selected have been verified through appropriate agencies and found to be such as do not render him unfit for appointment in the service of the Republic.
- (4) No person shall be recommended for appointment to the post unless—
- (a) he has applied in such form, accompanied by such fee and before such date, as is notified by the Commission while inviting applications for the post; and
- (b) in the case of a person already in Government service or in the service of a local authority, he has applied through his official superior.

5. Appointment by promotion or transfer on deputation.—(1) Appointment by promotion or by transfer on deputation to the post shall be made after considering the recommendations of such Departmental Promotion Committee as the Government may set up for the purpose and in consultation with the Commission.

(2) A person shall not be eligible for appointment by promotion or transfer on deputation to the post if he has not been confirmed in any post on the ground of unsatisfactory service records or of his failure to fulfil any other requirement for confirmation in that post.

6. Probation.—(1) Persons selected for appointment to the post otherwise than by transfer on deputation against a substantive vacancy shall be appointed on probation—

- (a) in the case of direct recruitment, for a period of two years from the date of substantive appointment; and
- (b) in the case of promotion, for a period of one year from the date of such appointment:

Provided that the appointing authority may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, extend the period or periods so that the extended period does not exceed two years in the aggregate.

(2) After the completion of the period of probation, or the extended period thereof, the appointing authority—

- (a) if it is satisfied that the conduct and work of the probationer during his period of probation has been satisfactory shall, subject to the provisions of sub-rule (3), confirm him; and
- (b) if it is of opinion that the conduct and work of the probationer during that period was not satisfactory, may, in the case of direct recruitment, terminate his service, and in the case of promotion, revert him to the post from which he was promoted.

Explanation.—The period of probation of a probationer shall be deemed to have been extended until any order under this sub-rule has been made.

(3) A probationer shall not be confirmed in the post until he has passed such examination and training as the Government may, from time to time, direct.
