NOTIFICATION

Dacca, the 1st September 1980

No. S.R.O. 300-L/80/ED/IC/SII-11/80-127.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 133 of the Constitution of the People's Republic of Bangladesh, the President, after consultation with the Bangladesh Public Service Commission, as required by clause (2) of article 140 of that Constitution, is pleased to make the following rules, namely:—

1. Short title.—These rules may be called the Bangladesh Civil Service (Economic and Trade : Statistical) Composition and Cadre Rules, 1980.

2. Definitions.—In these rules, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

- (a) "cadre post" means a post included in the Schedule;
- (b) "Commission" means the Bangladesh Public Service Commission;
- (c) "probationer" means a person appointed on probation to a cadre post;
- (d) "Schedule" means the Schedule annexed to these rules;
- (e) "Service" means the Bangladesh Civil Service (Economic and Trade : Statistical).

3. Constitution of Service.—(1) There shall be constituted a service to be called the Bangladesh Civil Service (Economic and Trade : Statistical).

(2) The Service shall consist of—

- (a) persons appointed substantively to class I permanent posts as shown in the Schedule on or before the 25th day of March, 1971;

(b) persons appointed on or after the 26th day of March, 1971, against any posts shown in the Schedule on the recommendation of the erstwhile Central Public Service Commission or East Pakistan Public Service Commission or the competent authority during the period of non-existence of the Commission or the Commission during the period when the posts were outside the purview of the Commission by the competent authority and whose terms and conditions of Service were guided by the service rules and who were confirmed in a cadre post on or before the 1st day of January, 1979; and

(c) persons to be appointed to the Service in accordance with these rules.

4. Posts borne in the cadre.—(1) The posts specified in the Schedule shall be borne in the cadre of the Service.

(2) The initial cadre strength of the Service shall be as shown in the Schedule and such cadre strength may be varied by the Government with the concurrence of the Ministry of Finance and the Establishment Division.

5. Appointing authority.—Appointments to the Service shall be made by the President or an officer authorised by him.

6. Procedure for recruitment.—(1) The Service shall initially consist of the persons covered by rule 3(2) (a) and (b) and thereafter—

(a) by direct recruitment on the recommendations of the Commission; and

(b) by promotion from feeder posts, in accordance with the provisions, if any, in the recruitment rules, on the recommendations of the Commission.

(2) No member of the Service shall be promoted to the posts in the New National Scale of Taka 1400—2225 and Taka 2100—2600 unless he has passed tests or examinations conducted in the manner prescribed in the recruitment rules.

(3) No member of the Service shall be allowed pay in the New National Scale of Taka 1400—2225 unless he has completed seven years at the initial stage of the Service and subject to availability of sanctioned cadre posts in the Service.

(4) Members of the Service promoted to the New National Scale of Taka 2350—2750 shall be required to complete successfully the regular course at Administrative Staff College.

7. Eligibility.—The minimum qualifications and other requirements for appointment to the service shall be as prescribed in the recruitment rules.

8. Probation and confirmation.—(1) A person appointed to the Service against a substantive vacancy shall remain on probation for—

(a) a period of two years if he is appointed by direct recruitment to the Service on the recommendation of the Commission;

(b) a period of one year if he is appointed on promotion.

The period of probation may be extended by the Government for a further period not exceeding two years.

Explanation.—If no order is made by the day following the completion of the probation period, the period of probation shall be deemed to have been extended.

(2) A person appointed to the Service on probation shall, during the period of probation, undergo such training under such terms and conditions as may be determined by the Government in this behalf.

(3) During the period of probation, appointment of a probationer may be terminated without consultation with the Commission if he is found unsuitable for retention in the Service.

(4) No person shall be confirmed in the Service unless he has served the prescribed period of probation, has successfully completed such training and passed such departmental examination as may be prescribed by the Government and unless his conduct and work have been found satisfactory.

9. Seniority.—The seniority of the members of the Service at the stage of entry shall be determined in the order of merit as declared by the Commission at the time of making recommendation for appointment.

10. General rules.—In matters not expressly provided for in these rules, members of the Service shall be governed by such rules as have been or may hereafter be framed by the Government and made applicable to them.

By order of the President
 FAYEZUDDIN AHMED
 * Secretary.
