3. Constitution of the Service.—(1) There shall be constituted a Service to be called the Bangladesh Civil Service (Administrative : Co-operative).

(2) The Service shall consist of—

- (a) persons appointed as Class-1 Officer on regular basis against regular posts under Revenue Budget of the Co-operative Department on or before the 25th day of March, 1971;
- (b) persons appointed on or after the 26th day of March, 1971, as Class-1 Officer in the Co-operative Department on the recommendation of the erstwhile East Pakistan Public Service Commission or the competent authority during the period of non-existence of the Commission or during the period when the posts were outside the purview of the Commission or the Commission; and
- (c) persons to be appointed to the Service in accordance with these rules.

4. Post borne in the cadre.—(1) The posts specified in the Schedule shall be borne in the cadre of the Service.

(2) The initial cadre strength of the Service shall be as shown in the Schedule and such cadre strength may be varied by the Government with the concurrence of the Ministry of Establishment and the Finance Division.

5. Appointing Authority.—Appointment to the Service shall be made by the President or an officer authorised by him.

6. Procedure for recruitment.—(1) The Service shall initially consist of the persons covered by rule 3(2)(a) and (b) and thereafter—

- (a) by direct recruitment on the recommendation of the Commission;
- (b) by promotion from feeder posts in accordance with the provision, if any, in the recruitment rules on the recommendation of the Commission.

(2) No member of the Service shall be promoted to a post in the Modified New Scale of Taka 2800—4425 and Taka 4200—5250 unless he has passed the test or examination conducted in the manner prescribed in the recruitment rules.

(3) No member of the Service shall be allowed pay in the Modified New Scale of Taka 2800—4425 unless he has completed seven years at the initial stage of the Service and subject to availability of sanctioned post in the service.

(4) Members of the Service promoted to the Modified New Scale of Taka 4750—5500 shall be required to complete successfully the regular course at the Public Administration Training Centre.

7. Eligibility.—The minimum qualifications and other requirements for appointment to the Service shall be as prescribed in the recruitment rules.

8. Probation and confirmation.—(1) A person initially appointed to the Service against a substantive vacancy shall remain on probation for—

(a) a period of two years if he is appointed by direct recruitment to the Service on the recommendation of the Commission;

(b) a period of one year if he is appointed by promotion.

(2) The period of probation may, by order, be extended by the Government for a further period not exceeding two years.

Explanation.—If no order under this sub-rule is made by the day following the completion of the probation period, the period of probation shall be deemed to have been extended.

(3) a person appointed to the Service on probation shall, during the period of probation, undergo such training under such terms and conditions as may be determined by the Government in this behalf.

(4) During the period of probation, appointment of a probationer may be terminated without consultation with the Commission if he is found unsuitable for retention in the Service.

(5) No person shall be confirmed in the Service unless he has served the prescribed period of probation, has successfully completed such training and passed such departmental examination as may be prescribed by the Government and unless his conduct and work have been found satisfactory.

9. Seniority.—The seniority of the members of the Service at the stage of entry shall be determined in the order of merit as declared by the Commission at the time of making recommendation for appointment.

10. General rules.—In matters not expressly provided for in these rules, members of the Service shall be governed by such rules as have been or may hereafter be framed by the Government and made applicable to them.
